

UNKNOWN LABRADOR.

Labrador is an unknown region to most people, but a glance at the map will show that it is a vast peninsula, with a total area of 500,000 square miles, lying north of Belle Isle strait and embraced in the north temperate zone, the southern section lying along the same parallels as the great wheat growing areas of western Canada. Newfoundland owns and administers the eastern section of Labrador, fronting on the Atlantic, and expeditions have explored it for some years past, but, naturally only superficially, because its immensity of area is such as to preclude a detailed investigation. The official reports, however, show that the country is splendidly wooded, and that in Hamilton inlet, Sandwich bay, and other districts on the east coast there is splendid timber and some of the greatest water powers in the world, while the region, being open to navigation for seven months of the year, possesses the same advantages for the pulp and paper industry as the mills in those parts of northern Europe which supply European centers today.

IN TWO VOLUMES.

There is an amusing anecdote about King Louis of Bavaria in Lady Dorothy Nevill's reminiscences: "Resolving to relieve the needs of one of his poor but brave aids-de-camp, he sent him a small portfolio, bound like a book, in which were deposited 300 crowns. Some time afterward he met the officer and said to him, 'Ah, well, how did you like the new work which I sent you?' 'Excessively, sire,' replied the colonel. 'I read it with such interest that I expect the second volume with impatience.' The king smiled, and when the officer's birthday arrived, he presented him with another portfolio, similar in every respect to the first, but with these words engraved upon it: 'This book is complete in two volumes.'"

COMING EVENTS.

There is the story of the young American heiress just arrived in Paris who was walking through the Rue de la Paix with her father. They stopped before the show window of a big jeweler's shop to look at a tiara surmounted by a coronet. "Papa, dear," cried the girl, "buy me that!"

"That, my child? I should like to, only, you know, to have the right to wear that jewelry you must be at least a duchess."

The American girl thought a moment, then replied: "You buy it—I'll find the duke."

REMARKABLE EXPERIENCE.

"I had a most remarkable experience the other day on the road," said the seasoned traveler.

"It must have been remarkable if you thought it so. What was it?"

"I met two young men on a Chicago limited and they talked to me 20 minutes—fully 20 minutes—before they told me they were from New York!"—Judge.

Centerville.

The new grass is beginning to appear.

J. N. Hanner and wife were visiting and shopping in Liberal Friday and Saturday.

A few of their most intimate friends made a surprise on Mr. and Mrs. Will Moon one night last week.

Ira Hanner made a business call on Elvin Carr last Friday afternoon.

Although the weather was bad last Sunday there was quite a good attendance at Sunday school.

H. L. Mills and son Ollie were delivering broomcorn at Liberal the first of the week.

Quite a number of the children of this neighborhood have the whooping cough.

W. O. Nelson and family are moving to Hugoton this week.

The ladies of the W. C. T. U. met last Thursday with Mrs. B. A. Wonder.

Chris Turner and family now ride in a surrey and also have a new organ.

Beautify the Home.

One of the best ways to make the home more cheerful is by appealing to the aesthetic sense of its occupants. We have just received a large assortment of wall paper, and it can be seen at Feather's furniture store.

A Pleasant Surprise.

Last Wednesday evening, March 22, a number of friends and neighbors surprised Mrs. R. J. Sliger, the occasion being her 32nd birthday. A very pleasant evening was spent listening to the music furnished by Mr. and Mrs. Sliger and Miss Icie Boles. Many useful presents were received by Mrs. Sliger. The guests departed at a late hour wishing her many more happy birthdays.

The following is the list of presents:

Stand cover, Mrs. R. O. Flanders
Bread plate, Mrs. Geo. Lauderback
Pickle dish, Opal Lauderback
Gingham apron, Mrs. Jno. Lemons
Pickle dish, Olive Lemons
Toothpick holder, Albert Perry
6 Soup plates, Lee Taylor
6 Pictures, Bertie, Harry and Claude Davis
Sugar bowl, creamer and butter dish, Nora, Vera and Lawrence Taylor
Towel, 3 pairs hose and a pair house slippers, Mrs. Robt Davis
Table linen and china salad bowl, Mrs. T. M. Bowles.
Sewing apron, scissors, thimble and embroidery hoops, Icie Bowles
Sugar bowl and creamer, Alpha Davis
6 Initial tea towels, Wilda Davis
Broom, W. P. Davis and wife
Pair pillow slips and trimming, Mrs. C. Lemmings and Mrs. V. Ross
Quilt, Ladies of Bluebell district
2 Bushels seed corn, T. M. Bowles
Mrs. Sliger isn't going to enter the profession Miss Mary Williams is anticipating, but it will be remembered these presents will be doubly appreciated by Mr. and Mrs. Sliger on account of their recent loss by fire.

THE WEAK POINT

About most wheel implements is the oiling device!

This is admitted by all implement makers, and they are all making so-called "Dust Proof Boxes" to overcome the trouble.

"Old Man Brown" as the boys call him, who has been with the John Deere Plow Co., for twenty-five years says: "The only way to make a Dust Proof Box is to make it right in the first place, then fill it and keep it so full of good hard oil that bust and sand can't get in."

That was well said. So far, no one has made a box that will absolutely keep out the dust any other way, but it may be so well made that it can be kept oozing over with grease. When the dust touches this it becomes mud, but can not work into the box.

Deere Wheel tools have screw caps at the outer ends of the boxes, and flanged collars at the inner ends. This wheel is found on Cultivators, and Gang Plows and Listers. It is a
